

Big Vibes

A Nullself Activity Book

To You,

Thank you for owning my zine! Whether you bought it from me, or it was a gift, or you just found it on the leave one take one table of a fantastic music festival, I greatly appreciate you taking the time to open this zine up and check out what's inside.

My usual zines have been inkwork and poetry zines that acted as time capsules for my work. This zine is different: it's an activity zine, focused on entertaining you through puzzles, activities, and coloring. The best way to experience this zine is with a pack of markers or other coloring tool, writing and scribbling on these pages with reckless abandon. Don't hold back; I can print more zines, but I can't replicate your creativity.

I've already put myself in this work.
Add yourself to it, too.
